Funeral Reception

Our Commitment To You

We appreciate that arranging a funeral reception is taking place at a difficult and emotional time. Our dedicated team will handle your arrangements with care, compassion and discretion, allowing family and friends to come together in a comfortable and welcoming environment.

From the preparation of Lottie's Private Dining Room to the choice of menu and dining arrangements, we will work closely with you to ensure everything is organised according to your family's wishes.
For further information or to discuss your funeral reception requirements, please contact The Ashe Hotel team.

Parking

We understand that convenient parking is an important consideration for family and friends attending a funeral reception.
As part of our funeral reception arrangements: 10 car parking spaces are guaranteed free of charge for the funeral party.
In addition, a further 15 spaces are available in the nearby multi-storey car park at a reduced rate, subject to availability.
Our team will be happy to assist with parking arrangements and provide further information when your reception is booked.
