

Congratulations to you both on your engagement!

Thank you for considering The Ashe Hotel, Tralee's newest 4 star hotel, as a venue for your special day.

The Ashe Hotel has, in a short time, gained a reputation for offering genuine hospitality, wonderful food and impeccable service. Situated on Maine Street in the town centre, we are only a few moments' walk to the Rose Gardens and the many attractions and amenities which the town has to offer.

At The Ashe Hotel, we pride ourselves on our ability to be dedicated and flexible with our experienced team on hand, from enquiry, to the run up to your day and on the day itself. We like to tailor every wedding to your wishes with particular emphasis on table and room décor and in providing excellent cuisine.

Every detail of your wedding will be considered and it is our intention that every expectation will be exceeded.

Our décor has been described as having an 'understated elegance' and our reception lobby provides the perfect setting for a drinks reception. It's a short walk to the beautifully styled ballroom and here you will delight in a sumptuous banquet.

At the end of your remarkable day, retire to your luxurious suite.

The following morning relive the magical moments over a bubbly breakfast, in your room or with family and friends downstairs.

We are also delighted to be a fully licensed venue for Civil Ceremonies and our intimate ballroom provides the perfect setting for you to exchange your vows.

We sincerely hope to have the opportunity of hosting your special day at The Ashe. It is our wish that you can relax and enjoy your wedding in the knowledge that our team will be on hand offering you and your guests a highly personalised level of attention to ensure the most memorable day possible.

Please do not hesitate to contact us to discuss your requirements in detail and we would be delighted to show you our wonderful facility.

With kind regards
