

Welcome to The Ashe Hotel
This sensory story will help you imagine what your visit might be like, so you can feel relaxed and ready to enjoy your stay

When you arrive at the hotel, you can park outside or at the nearby multi story car park (If you require a space outside the hotel please contact hotel reception)

When you arrive into the hotel, you will meet our reception team behind the desk. A member of the team will welcome to the hotel and check you into your room for your stay. You might hear people chatting and phones ringing in this area.

After checking in you will take the lift or stairs up to the bedrooms. Inside your bedroom will you see your bed and you will touch your bed and blankets. There will be a television in the room and a bathroom.

Alfie's Lounge is where breakfast is served each morning. You will hear people talking and coffee being made. You will smell fresh coffee and fresh food being baked. During the day you can sit down here for brunch, lunch and dinner

Alfie's Bar is a space for brunch, lunch, dinner and drinks.
You will hear people chatting and you will smell lots of food aroma.
You will sit at a table here and eat or drink.

The Garden Terrace is open all year round. There are heaters and blankets to keep you warm. While sitting on the terrace you will hear people talking and laughing and you may hear cars passing by.

During your stay you might take a seat in the lobby to read a book or talk with your family. You will here people talking, coffee being made and you will see people move around the hotel.

During your stay you are welcome to borrow our sensory box from hotel reception